

Bahamut's Song

With spirit ♩ = 115 Verse 1 mf

1 7 8 9 10 11 12 13

The moon lives a long and lone - ly life A - bove the 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22

bro - ken plain. The sun has set, he is not bound, but he dare not say her

Verse 2

23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30

name. Her eyes were bright in the sha-dows. Her

31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38

warmth a - gainst my side. And though I left at mor-ning's light That

Verse 3

39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47

fi - re ne - ver died. All things in time must come a-round.

48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55

The de - mon gets it's due. In true mis - takes, true wis-dom's found

Verse 4

56 57 58 59 60 61 62 63 64

At the cost of all I knew. Be - neath the waves, a -

2
65 Bahamut's Song

8 bove the throne ____ They've all for - got her name. ____ A chain of sand, a

73

8 bed of stone ____ Now bound by blood and shame. ____

Verse 5

84

8 I live a long and lone-ly life ____ A - bove the bro - ken plain. ____ The

93

8 sun has set I am not bound ____ And I won't for - get her name. ____